The book Broken Dreams & Second Chances is a mixture of telling the tales of four people's lives - you get engrossed in the characters from their "coming of age" moments when they are growing up, and experiencing the successes and failures of life. The author does an excellent job telling you just enough about their family so you feel like you personally know them. By the time you get to chapter 11 and the trip to Antigua you are cheering for them and hoping things work out. Now that I am ...
